 It is because the makers of THE CRAW-FORD SHOE are the only parties in this country who have over attempted to do a re-
- tall business on the merits of their own shoes EXCLUSIVELY, giving the consumer a first-class shoe at a low price.

 It is because the makers of THE CRAW FORD SHOE have no Retail Shoe Dealers TO PROTECT, as they sell their entire production through THBIR OWN CRAWFORD
- SHOB STORBS. It is the first attempt made by any manu-facturer of Gentlemen's Shoes to sell direct to the consumer their entire production as

"Why, father, I notice in one of the Crawford Shoe advertisements that this shoe is made for men in sizes and half sizes, from 4s to 12s. I wear size 4, and most boys of 12 years and over can wear this shoe. The makers of this shoe claim that a BOY requires as good a shoe as a man, and do you know, dad, the boys' shoes which are sold for $2 have but little wear in them, being made of the poorer parts of leather remaining after cutting a Gen-tleman's shoe."

"Well, my son, you may go to one of the Crawford Shoe Stores to morrow and buy a pair to suit you."

Gentlemen constantly on their feet will find our CRAWFORD SHOE easy the first day worn. It requires no breaking-in. Ask any one who has worn a pair his opinion of it.

It is said the engineer and one brakeman of the freight train were killed, and that one of the passenger train hands is also fatally in-jured.

Will Marry the Duke.

Will Knife Ives and Stayner will be a witness for the State. He has been promised immunity from punishment provided he tells the truth. The grand jury still has the cases of Ives & Stayner before them, and will have for some time to come. Further indictments against the accused are looked for. Mr. Lawrence, counsel for the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton Railroad Company, in the civil suit against Ives, Stayner & Woodruff, and which they are held on orders of arrest in default of $250,000 bail, was at the District Attorney's office this morning in company with Mr. Dexter and some of the witnesses before the grand jury. In conversation, Mr. Lawrence said he had secured proof that the defendants had succeeded in putting by a large part of their plunder—perhaps $1,000,000—enough, at least, to supply them with delicacies for the remainder of their lives, if they should be able to keep out of prison, and it should not be taken from them by civil process.

Another Chaska Case.

Another Chaska Case. Miss Gertrude Britton, a seamstress a the Yankton Agency, was recently married to Wellington, a full-blooded Stoux Indian.

Mr. Sendal and bride of Detroit were on the wrecked St. George train. The bride was in the ceach which fell over the side of the bridge and is seriously hurt. She has a scalp wound and is injured internally. The report that she was killed is unitue. Mr. Sendal escaped unitured. Doutney, the temperance lecturer, had his leg broken.

The correct number of killed is nine and of wounded there are about thirty.
